

How are we Organized?

The Association is a grass roots organization; its goals are achieved at the local levels of the National and Local Associations. There is a central administration made up of representatives from all the associations and our International Service Board coordinates matters common to all associations. We also maintain an administrative office.

The religious challenge of this age is to those farseeing and forward-looking men and women of spiritual insight who will dare to construct a new and appealing philosophy of living out of the enlarged and exquisitely integrated modern concepts of cosmic truth, universe beauty, and divine goodness. [The Urantia Book, Paper 2:7.10, page 43:3]

The best way to achieve lasting world peace is through the spiritual regeneration of the individual citizen which will lead to the eventual social, moral, economic and political transformations necessary for a better world. We believe the teachings contained in The Urantia Book have the power to change the lives of those who embrace them—inspiring and stimulating them to new levels of spiritual growth, enlightened living and service to our planet. Delivering this revelation without invasive promotion to people seeking a positive spiritual message—people who desire a better world for themselves and their children—is the challenge that faces us today.

Membership

The Association welcomes people of all faiths, races, and nationalities and fosters spiritual fellowship among the peoples of the world. We are not a church or organized religion, nor do we express opinions or take positions on political, social, or economic issues. Rather we recognize that while our beliefs may differ from other religionists, our faith and destiny are one and the same. The teachings of The Urantia Book call us to share spiritual unity, not uniformity.
