Eligible Expenses

There are many possible expenses associated with attending an event. If we are to optimize our available donations we have to make decisions on what type of expenses are eligible for funding, how many leaders and students we can assist, and how much financial aid we can give each person. The Financial Aid Sub-Committee will work with you to determine what specific expenses from the following list of eligible expenses (to a maximum of 325 Euro worth in total) can be provided to assist you:

- registration fee for attending the conference
- dinner Thursday evening
- lunch and dinner Friday
- lunch and dinner Saturday
- all day coffee, tea and water

Note: The conference fee does NOT include travel, hotel, breakfast or lodging costs

I have read the above statement regarding 'eligible expenses' and I understand the Sub-Committee will work with me to provide as much financial aid as possible.

Your Responsibilities If Your Application Is Approved

Over time, experience in granting financial aid for conference attendance has taught the wisdom of completing certain tasks. Therefore, we ask that you complete the following to assure you and we are protected from unforeseen financial loss:

- Please acquire and pay for your flight ticket as soon as possible and send us a purchase proof before 12th January, 2018. Please send verification of this to the event committee as quickly as possible.
- Please be sure you received a confirmation email from the 2018 Urantia Association International Conference Financial Aid Sub-Committee as to what specific financial aid will be provided, including how and when it will be provided.
- You arrange your own visa to The Netherlands if required by your government and to send us a copy of that before getting the final scholarship approval because if you cannot get a visa then we prefer to give the Financial Aid to someone else who does not need a visa for The Netherlands.

- If you are traveling on a visa, please advise the sub-committee of any travel plans you have to arrive early and/or to stay in country after the conference. Also be willing to comply with all visa responsibilities on your behalf. By acceptance of financial aid and you agree to return to country of origin and the event organizers assume no responsibility for overstayed visa holders.

I have read the above tasks and agreements, and I certify I will comply with each of these responsibilities and agreements.
